SEVEN MEN WERE INJURED early Wednesday when the huge tractor-trailer (above), loaded with chickens, slammed into a Missouri Public Service Company utility truck on South Limit Avenue near the Country Club. Driver of the vehicle said brakes on the truck failed to function. Two men occupied the buckets on the end of the boom of the utility truck in lower photo (right) and one man was dislodged and thrown to the ground. The MPSC vehicle was repairing the line pole the buckets are resting on. The pole was sheared off a few hours earlier by a car that went out of control. (Details of story below. 'Brakes Fail' On Big Unit

Seven Hurt As Truck Hits Parked Utility Firm Truck

Seven men were injured, one severely, in a crash on U. S. Highway 65, about half way between the Sedalia Country Club entrance and 32nd Street, about 2:30 o'clock Wednesday morning, when a large tractor of the Ken Ballew Hatchery Co., Inc., Mansfield, Mo., crashed into the parked line truck of the Missouri Public Service Co. More than $25,000 in damage resulted to the units.

The accident occurred at the same area where a car driven by Rose Anna Sanders, 37, of Smithton, had crashed into the pole snapping it in two about 10:55 o'clock Tuesday night.

The six-man crew of the Missouri Public Service Co., was just about finished in setting an emergency pole along side of the broken pole to hold it until a new pole could be placed carrying high tension wires and a transformer. Two men were still in the two buckets on the long boom of the service truck when the crash occurred. One man was thrown from the bucket onto the ground while the other remained in the bucket with a part of the pole lying across it partially pinning Oscar Kraxberger, 41, of 1007 West 10th Street.

Four other workmen were around the truck at the time.

The large 1964 hatchery company tractor was being driven north on Highway 65 pulling a large trailer loaded with chicken coops carrying 2,760 chickens from Mansfield to Marshall. It was being driven by Richard Gray, 28, Mansfield, who was alone.

According to Gray his brakes failed to function, and he reported that he had worked on them in Springfield at a Standard Service station before heading north.

Gray said he applied the brakes and when they failed to function he tried to pull out as he saw the truck, but hit the utility trailer which caused his tractor to swerve into the rear of the truck. "When I set the brakes, and the tractor brakes failed to take hold the trailer brakes automatically set," he said.

The MPSC truck, a 1962 model, equipped with a boom with buckets on the end for lineman to work from, was parked along side the east part of the highway with about two feet of the truck on the concrete pavement for solid footing so the hydraulic machinery could work without any chance of slippage on the soft shoulder.

South of the area where the truck was being operated a large warning sign, flasher and three red flags had been placed as a warning to oncoming traffic.

Thrown from the second bucket of the boom was Eddie Friedly, 26, 1100 Wilkerson. He fell about ten feet to the ground.

On the platform on the rear of the truck, Van Lee Davis, 37, 1004 South Missouri, was working the hydraulic levers controlling the boom. On the ground at the rear of the truck and standing near the pole trailer attached to the service truck was Clayton Young, 37, of 1202 South Engineer; and standing on the highway just west of the trailer was Herbert Schulz, 63, crew foreman; and John Detherage, 27, 2601 East 12th Street, also was near the truck, when the tractor struck the left rear end of the truck and the trailer.

According to Young, he looked up and saw the truck heading for them. He said he tried to jump over the trailer and at the same time yelled to Davis to jump. Davis did but jumped and apparently caught his foot and was thrown to the ground. About that time the tractor hit the trailer, and then the truck and in doing so the trailer swerved back catching both Young and Davis and as the vehicles moved on northward, the trailer rolled them for about 20 feet on the pavement.

Schulz said when he saw they were going to hit he succeeded in jumping the trailer and the ditch on the east side, near to where Friedly was thrown out of the bucket to the ground.

Detherage said he also jumped across the ditch and fell, but was not hit.

The huge tractor continued to go on northward and suddenly skidded cross-ways the north lane with the right front wheel jerked loose from the vehicle. The cab of the vehicle was crushed in, and Gray reported that he believed he was thrown out through the windshield on to the pavement, as the heavy load of chicken coops shifted forward. A number of the coops skidded from the trailer out onto the concrete pavement, some coops were crushed and chickens in them were killed. It was estimated several hundred chickens were killed or smothered because of the accident.

Kraxberger, suffered the more severe injuries, a fracture of the right shoulder blade, cut on the left ear and bruises. He was X-rayed and treated by Dr. Don Proctor, and admitted to Bothwell Hospital for further observation.

Friedly complained of a right

First Space Rendezvous

Dramatic Space Feat Successful

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP)—The Gemini 6 and 7 astronauts conducted the world's first rendezvous in space today—a momentous space feat and one of man's greatest adventures.

The successful in-flight formation of the two craft, slightly more than 100 feet apart, pushed the United States past another milestone on the road to the moon.

Word of the spine-tingling feat came in a calm voice from astronaut Thomas P. Stafford aboard Gemini 6.

"We're at 120 feet and sitting," he reported.

The historic moment took place about 185 miles above the Philippine Islands as the two space chariots, each with two astronauts aboard, zipped along nose to nose at more than 17,500 miles an hour.

At the moment of Stafford's announcement, the 40-man team in the mission control center in Houston, stood up, smiled and waved American flags.

With Stafford aboard Gemini 6 was astronaut Walter M. Schirra Jr.

Manning Gemini 7 were astronauts Frank Borman and James A. Lovell Jr., who earlier this afternoon competed the 11th of their planned 14 days in orbit.

Gemini 6 was launched from Cape Kennedy at 8:37 a.m. (EST) today and started the suspendseful pursuit that covered more than 100,000 miles over more than 3½ orbits.

Borman reported to the Hawaii station that he could see the twin stars in the Gemini constellation, Castor and Pollux, shortly after the rendezvous began.

The initial rendezvous started with the two space vehicles about 120 feet apart.

Later, asked what the range was, Stafford replied:

"Twenty feet — we did it."

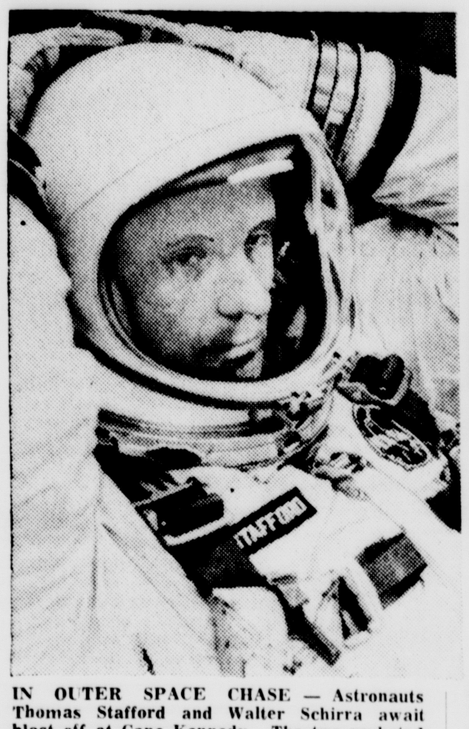
They were to perform various rendezvous maneuvers for six hours.

Schirra and Stafford, who started out 1,200 miles behind Gemini 7, planned eight jet firing maneuvers to gradually move into the same orbital path as the target. Each move slightly increases the speed, which initially was about 17,500 miles an hour.

The first maneuver, at 10:12 a.m. over the Gulf of Mexico, raised the high point of the Gemini 6 orbit to 170 miles.

At 10:55 a.m., over the Indian Ocean, a blast of the small jets elevated the low point to 135 miles.

After this second shift, the distance between the two space ships was reduced to 495 miles.



IN OUTER SPACE CHASE — Astronauts Thomas Stafford and Walter Schirra await blast off at Cape Kennedy. The two rocketed into space today in Gemini 6 in chase of Gemini 7 which was launched a week ago Saturday. The space rendezvous took place on schedule this afternoon. (NEA)

Strike Red's Industrial Heartland

Steam Power Plant Near Haiphong Blasted By Jets

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — U.S. Air Force F105 Thunderchief jets blasted a major power plant today 14 miles northeast of Haiphong, North Viet Nam's major port. It was the first American strike in the Communist foe's industrial heartland in the Red River delta.

Pilots reported that they had hit the heart of the Uong Bi steam power plant and many secondary explosions followed. A U.S. spokesman said the raid knocked out the plant, which he said supplies 15 per cent of North Viet Nam's electric power and is the primary power source for the Hanoi-Haiphong area.

One plane was shot down but the pilot, Capt. Harry D. De Witt of Moscow, Idaho, was rescued. He suffered a broken leg and facial injuries.

The escalation of the air war against the Communist North came as U.S. military spokesmen announced that U.S. combat dead climbed last week to 91, the second highest weekly toll of the Vietnamese fighting Seven other Americans were reported missing or captured and 316 wounded in the seven-day period that ended at midnight Saturday.

Name Four To Major Case Squad

Four Sedalia police officers who will be members of the Mid-Missouri Major Case Squad currently being organized were named Wednesday by Chief of Police William Miller.

They are Assistant Chief of Police Charles Knapp, Lt. Jewell Riley, Patrolman William N. Raines and Patrolman Clarence Harrell.

Members of the squad will form a special investigative unit to probe major crimes arising in the mid-Missouri area. The squad is patterned after highly successful units in Missouri's metropolitan areas of St. Louis and Kansas City.

The four Sedalia officers will receive a six-day training and orientation course early in 1966 under FBI instructors. Tentative plans are for three days of the training in February and the remaining three in March with instruction to be given in Columbia.

Currently directing organization of the squad are Chief of Police Claude Short, Jefferson City; Sheriff Frank Elkin, Boone County; and Professor Bernard Brannon, of the University of Missouri.

Gas Refund Checks For Area Users

The Missouri Public Service Company announced today the mailing of $129,000 in gas refund checks to its Southern Gas System customers.

The refunds came about as the result of a previously announced rate reduction agreement between the Cities Service Gas Company and its customers, which was approved by the Federal Power Commission. The Missouri Public Service Company, which purchases natural gas from the Cities Service Gas Company, has received permission from the Misssouri Public Service Commission to lower its gas rates proportionally.

MPS Company officials explained that the refund checks are based on the difference in rates charged its natural gas consumers from Sept. 7, 1965, retroactive to April 23, 1964, which was the date when the Cities Service Gas Company initially increased its rates. The new reduced rates have been used in billing from meter readings since Sept. 7 of this year, it was stated.

The refund checks will be mailed to MPS natural gas consumers in the following cities: Clinton, Deerfield, Henrietta, Lexington, Marshall, Nevada, Platte City, Richmond, Sedalia, Tracy, Weston and the rural areas surrounding these communities.

More Funds For Schools

City School Board Votes Program Participation

Passage of the new federal Elementary and Secondary Education Act will mean a potential injection of some $167,000 annually into the Sedalia school system if participating programs are established, the Board of Education was told Tuesday night.

And after hearing an explanation of the new act and recommendations from Supt. of Schools Dr. T. J. Norris, the board authorized Norris to proceed with applications for participation.

Missouri's share of the federal appropriation, Norris reported, will be $29,600,000 and in accordance with the anti-poverty philosophy of the measure the allocation to counties is being made on the basis of the number of students whose families earn less than $2,000 annually or receive Aid to Dependent Children (ADC).

The Pettis County allocation, Norris said, will be approximately $202,000 per year with the Sedalia No. 200 district receiving the greater portion of that—$167,000.

Norris, however, had some criticism of the program in that it establishes need areas based upon percentages of economically deprived students and areas not qualifying cannot participate.

In the Sedalia system, Norris said 288 students are under the ADC program while the district average of these youngsters amounts to 15.8 per cent. School surveys, Norris reported, have revealed that only three of the elementary school districts have a high enough percentage of economicallly deprived youngsters to comply with requirements for participation in the program—Hubbard, Jefferson and Whittier. A program, however, could be established at Smith-Cotton High School as students come from all of the district, thus complying with requirements.

Norris said he had investigated through the local welfare agency and determined percent-

Sedalians Have Until Dec. 16 To Register

Sedalians not registered to vote have through Thursday, Dec. 16, to register if they plan to vote in the special constitutional amendments election set for Jan. 14.

County Clerk J. H. Green pointed out the deadline as statute requires registration books to close 28 days prior to an election.

Persons not previously registered or who have changed their name must come to Green's office in the courthouse in person. Changes in a voter's address may be given the office by mail, however.

Honolulu Rainfall Heaviest Seen

HONOLULU (AP)—Five inches of rain fell in eight hours in Honolulu Tuesday, one inch more than the city usually receives in the entire month of December.

Intersections were flooded and traffic was stalled. One bridge was closed because rising stream waters loosened underpinnings.

Sun-Orbiting Craft Launch Thursday

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP) —A sun-orbiting satellite is to ride into space early Thursday, after waiting in line for 24 hours behind Gemini 6.

The satellite, called Pioneer 6, is to be launched on the nose of a mighty Delta rocket between 1:45 a.m. and 2:37 a.m. (EST).

For Non-Residents

Boost School's Tuition Rates

Tuition for non-resident students of Sedalia District No. 200 was increased for next year's (1966-67) school term by the Board of Education Tuesday night in a move aimed at bringing the fee into line with average costs of educating a child per year.

Effective next fall will be tuition rates of $390 per year for elementary youngsters and $415 for high school students on an individual basis.

School districts sending their students into the Sedalia system will pay $275 per year for elementary students and $300 for the high school level. The difference in the charges on an individual and district basis is accounted for in the $113 state aid received on students from other districts.

Board members voted the tuition hike after Superintendent of Schools Dr. T. J. Norris related average education costs in the district last year amounted to $416.08 per student for high school and $391.85 for the elementary level. Present tuition on an individual basis, however, is $325 for elementary and $350 for high school—well below the average costs per student computed for last year, while districts sending students on tuition are paying that amount less state aid.

The increase will affect approximately 200 students attending the Sedalia school system on a tuition basis. Last increase in tuition was made two years ago.

In other action, the board opened bids on the purchase of 34 new junior high school band uniforms and approved the low bid submitted by the Fruhauf Company, Wichita, Kan., at a total of $1,977.10. The uniform purchase expands the number of junior high band uniforms from 66 to 100 and the low bid was below an estimate of $2,040 made at the board's November meeting when the bid call was authorized. Other bidders were: Ostwald Company, $2,525.18; Fechheimer Company, $2,257.60; Stanbury & Company, $2,432.70; and Craddock Uniforms, $2,724.42.

The board heard a request for extension of the school bus route in the former Quisenberry District, but took the request under advisement. Appearing in behalf of the extension were Marvin Mallory and Orin Chappell, both of Route 4, who made the request so that their young-

Ann Landers

Answers Your Problems

Dear Ann Landers: I married a man eight years my junior. After four years of trying desperately to make him happy, our marriage is on the rocks. Our daughter is two now and I'm hoping to save the situation for her sake.

We didn't have a fight. He simply told me he was taking his clothes to his mother's house and wasn't coming back. When I asked why, he replied, "I am too immature to face the responsibilities of marriage. I want to live with my mother."

That was three months ago. He telephones ever few days and comes to dinner every Sunday. I have refused support money because I am financially independent. I love him and I need him. Please tell me how to make this marriage work.—MRS. P.R.E.

Dear Mrs. P.R.E.: You can't force a mama's boy to be a husband. This juvenile has told you he wants no part of marriage and if you're smart you'll take his word for it.

Since you are financially independent, spend some of your money on a psychiatrist and find out why you love this loser. A normal attachment this isn't.

Dear Ann Landers: I just learned that the armed services will not take a man who has a prison record and I'm burned up. Why should the undesirable characters enjoy the privileges of living in this great country and not have to sacrifice anything?

My sons both served in World War II. The older boy was wounded at Normandy. The younger boy picked up jungle rot in the South Pacific. When I think of the sacrifices made by millions of fine young men while the ex-cons sat out the war at home and made big money, it makes me furiuos. And now it's happening again.

What do you have to say about this?—M. M. M.

Dear M. M. M.: Serving one's country is a privilege, not a punishment. When a man is convicted he loses many of his rights as a citizen and the privilege of wearing the uniform is one of those rights.

Dear Ann Landers: In the past few years I have sent you four well-written letters. Not one of them was published in your column.

I am sick of writing letters to you and not seeing my letters in the paper. This letter will be my last. — DISGUSTED READER FROM MULBERRY POINT.

Dear Disgusted: I am glad you wrote one more time because it gives me the chance to say something I would like to get across, not only to you, but to others who have similar complaints.

My column is not a billboard for people who want to tell off their friends and/or relatives. You say you are disgusted with me because I did not print your letters. This proves you did not really want advice, you just wanted to get your side of the story in the paper.

The primary purpose of my column is to offer service. Every week thousands of people who want help send me a self-addressed, stamped envelope and they receive replies in the mail. Be my guest.

Confidential to Sick of Being Stood Up: Some pepole accept invitations in good faith but when the time comes they are not up to going. It is best not to count on a person who has "folded out at the last moment on three occasions" as a fourth for bridge or a dinner partner for an extra man. But do be compassionate and continue to invite her to your larger parties.

Santa Claus An American, Cubans Hear

HAVANA (AP) — "Why won't Santa Claus come this year, Mommy? Has he forgotten us?"

"It's not that he's forgotten us, Alfredito, but, you see, Santa Claus is an American and Fidel won't let him in the country."

Thus did a young Cuban mother answer her 5-year-old son asking why he would not receive gifts on Christmas.

Though Jan. 6, the Day of the Three Kings, is the traditional time for gift-giving in Latin-American countries, Cuban children along with other Latins have been accustomed to receiving toys from Santa Claus on Christmas, too.

This year there will be a few toys, and possibly a limited supply of the Cubans' favorite Christmastime dish, roast pork, but the emphasis is on "yearend fiestas."

Santa Claus is connected with "Yankee imperialism," therefore no longer mentioned. Most children will receive their toys only from the reyes, the three kings, Jan. 6.

Even that holiday is being phased out. Some children receive their toys immediately after their parents buy them anytime during December or early January. Many mothers, however, have had a difficult time in explaining to their offspring the differences in the celebration of Christmas since communism took over in Cuba.

Once nativity scenes, Christmas trees and religious activities were common. Now smiling Santa Clauses and religious adornment are absent from downtown streets and stores. Christmas carols sung in soft Cuban Spanish no longer fill the air.

But the spirit of giving and receiving is evidently too strong for Communist leaders to abolish. But they've regulated it, along with almost everything else in daily life.

STANTON, Mo. — Gunslinger Bill Cantrell of Stanton, Mo., practices his draw for a hopeful showdown with Dee Woolem, a west coast quick-draw who wears the silver belt buckle for "the wold's fastest gun." Cantrell says he's "the fastest gun in the world with accuracy," and is willing to put up $5,000 to prove he can beat Woolem in speed and accuracy. (UPI)

Studies indicate feasibility of returning burned-out first stages of Saturn V rockets, designed to place man on the moon, to earth undamaged for re-use. Parachutes would be released some 2½ minutes after launch at an altitude of about 40 miles after separation of the first section of the three-stage space vehicle, its 2,200 tons of fuel exhausted. The 'chutes would slow descent through the atmosphere of the 140-foot, 175-ton hulk to an intact splashdown in the Atlantic, right. First test is likely during the series of Saturn V launchings beginning in 1967.

Waddell-Hunkins Vows Said Nov. 26

St. Philip Benizi Catholic Church, Versailles, was the scene of the Friday morning, Nov. 26 marriage of Miss Frances Irene Waddell to Mr. Philip King Hunkins. The Rev. James O'Sullivan officiated.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. James Frost Waddell, Route 3, Versailles, and of the late Mr. Waddell. Mrs. George Hunkins, Jr., Grand Marcais, Minn., is the mother of the bridegroom.

Autumn hued chrysanthemums in two arrangements, adorned the sides of the main altar.

Wedding selections were sung by Miss Reta Allen and Miss Mary Antinopolis, accompanied at the organ by Miss Judith Brance.

Given in marriage by her brother, Dr. James Richard Waddell, Lancaster, the bride wore a light ivory suit of wool, accessorized with gold. She carried a crystal rosary, a gift from her sister, Sister Mary Valerie, BVM, of the Sisters of Charity of Petaluma, Calif. Her ivory Spanish mantilla was of Goysca style. She carried pale yellow chrysanthemums. An heirloom brooch was her only jewelry.

Maid of honor was Miss Virginia Louis Waddell, Versalles. Her gown was of rust silk and her Spanish mantilla of brown lace was embroidered in ivory. She also wore an heirloom brooch and her flowers were like those of the bride.

Best man was Mr. John C. Hunkins, St. Paul, Minn., brother of the bridegroom. Ushers were Mr. John Crass, Versailles, and Mr. George Romig, Syracuse.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Waddell chose a navy blue two piece suit dress with blue accessories. Her corsage was of white chrysanthemums.

After the ceremony, a reception was held in the church dining room. Covering the bride's table was white lace. A four tiered wedding cake, decorated with cream colored roses and variegated green fall leaves, centered the table. Mrs. Archie Garrison baked the cake.

Reception arrangements were made by Mrs. A. C. Brance, Mrs. Alfred Williams, Mrs. Gene Kelley, Mrs. John Crass, Mrs. Wendell Burke and Mrs. Donald Burke. Mrs. P. J. McDonough attended the guest book and guest table.

Following a wedding trip through southern states, the couple will reside at Grand Marcais, Minn., where the bridegroom is employed by the United States Forest Service. The bride, a graduate of Versailles High School, was also graduated from the University of Missouri in 1962. The couple served in the Peace Corps in Brazil.

Out of town guests included: Dr. and Mrs. J. R. Waddell and family, Lancaster; Mr. and Mrs. George D. Hunkins and family, St. Paul, Minn.; John Thomas Waddell and daughter, Tucson, Ariz.; George Hunkins, Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Niebolte, Breckenridge, Minn.; Miss Jayne Colbeth, St. Paul, Minn; Miss Edith Berry, Morganton, N. C.; Mrs. T. A. Wilding, of Sedalia.

Webb-Shephard Wedding Held On Nov. 26th

At two o'clock Friday afternoon, Nov. 26, Miss Betty Lou Webb, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Webb, 436 East Jackson, became the bride of Mr. James L. Shephard, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard C. Shephard, 607 North Quincy, at Emmett Avenue Baptist Church. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. G. L. Neely, pastor.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white street length dress.

Mrs. John Webb was bridesmaid. The bridegroom was attended by the bride's brother, Mr. John Webb, as best man.

A reception was held after the ceremony at the home of the bride's parents. A wedding trip was taken to the Ozarks by the couple.

Before her marriage, Mrs Shephard was honored at a Nov. 9 shower at Emmett Avenut Baptist Church. Hostesses were Mrs. John Webb and Mrs. Jake Webb. Thirty-four guests attended.

VIET CONG VICTIMS—Bodies of Vietnamese killed in a sudden Viet Cong machinegun attack upon a Buddhist pagoda in which they were sleeping are laid out in a street at Tan Huong village, South Viet Nam. Veteran AF Pilot Back For Holidays

DIGHTON, Kan. (AP) — An Air Force spotter who flew more than 800 sorties over Viet Cong territory, his small unarmed plane hit 50 times by enemy gunfire, hopes to be home here around Christmas.

He is Capt. Lawrence Leroy Reed, son of Mrs. William F. McKinney of Dighton. He arrived in the United States Dec. 6 and Tuesday in Washington, told a news conference how a "forward air controller" (FAC) locates the enemy and leads attack planes and ground forces to them.

Mrs. McKinney told the Associated Press Tuesday that her son hopes to get home "right at Christmas or a little later."

In telling of his sorties in the slow spotter plane, an 0-1F Cessna, Reed didn't mention the decorations he wears or for which he has been nominated: Two purple hearts; the Commendation Medal; qualified for 30 Oak Leaf clusters to his Air Medal; been nominated for three Distinguished Flying Crosses and been awarded the Gallantry Cross Silver Star on four occasions by the South Vietnamese government.

His plane had a top speed of only 90 miles an hour on his missions, which had to be done at little more than tree top altitude. This accounted for the 50 times his plane was hit during his many flights.

Reed's job was to ferret out Viet Cong ambushes, fly surveillance cover for convoys of ground forces, discover little changes in the pattern of life in villages which meant the presence of Viet Cong.

Only protection he had was a carbine carried in the plane.

Reed said there are about 130 such planes in Viet Nam. Each flies an average of three or four sorties a day and there have been some losses.

He told the news conference in Washington he believes the light, sports plane type of aircraft is better than helicopters for the work he does because of a difference in maintenance requirements. The 0-1F needs a maintenance job only about every 200 hours; a helicopter needs maintenance much more often.

Reed, a native of Dighton, graduated from high school in 1952 and enlisted in the Navy. He joined the Air Force 3½ years later after his Navy discharge and went to the Aviation Cadet School at Harlington, Tex.

He married the former Elizabeth Bandit of Eau Claire, Wis., the day he graduated, served four years in Japan and at bases in Oklahoma and California before going to Viet Nam on Dec. 27, 1964.

Reed has two brothers, John of Dighton and Charlie of Scott City; a half brother, Roger Updendahl of Dighton; and two sisters, Janis of Dighton and Mrs. Carol Smith, Dodge City.

He said he expects to be assigned as an instructor in FAC at the Air Commando Wing at Hurlburt Field, Florida.

'Formula' Shows Fill TV Screen

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Television, according to a common complaint, is full of "formula shows," which means that they have been compounded of specific ingredients like a prescription for a cough medicine or a recipe for a casserole.

Obviously every series, like every main dish, must have a characteristic form. And since there are only seven plots available, the important thing is the way they are used and the quality of the writing and acting.

The basic recipe for a half-hour program consists of setting up a situation or problem fast and then resolving it. There is little time for anything except to tell an uncomplicated story.

When a show is an hour long, more ingredients must be added — more characters, character development, sub plots and backgrounds.

The one exception to the recipe rule is that good old network staple, the hour-long action show, particularly the war show. War — conflict — is a satisfactory substitute for plot and character development and it was illustrated by coincidence on two successive nights this week on ABC.

In both cases — Monday night's episode of "12 O'Clock High" and Tuesday night's "Combat"—the military heroes were placed in dangerous positions ringed by the enemy. Then for the balance of the hour they worked their way out.

Occasionally one of the enemy gets shot and usually one of the good guys, but members of the regular cast never get more than winged or creased by a bullet.

With minor alternations — eliminating a crash landing on "12 O'Clock," for instance — the two scripts could have been switched between the shows.

Red Skelton had Tallulah Bankhead, rarely seen on television, as his guest star Tuesday night. Miss Bankhead, who was sometimes a little hard to understand, played the same broad comedy character that Goodman Ace created for her years ago when she starred in radio's last important variety program, "The Big Show."

Market Awaits Answer

Interest Hiks Puts Budget Uncertainties In Spotlight

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market, having taken the rise in interest rates in stride, now is concentrating on the next big cliffhander — the federal budget.

The political battle over the Federal Reserve Board's hiking its interest charges puts the uncertainties veiling the budget even more in the spotlight. How higher interest rates and the new budget will live together is a moot question. The debate will get hotter.

But the biggest current question in the eyes of stock traders is how the budget, when unveiled next month will divide federal spending between Viet Nam war needs and the many programs to carry on the march toward the "Great Society."

And the stock market would like to know the answers — ahead of time, if possible. The allocation of funds could affect many individual corporations — and the price of their stocks — as well as the trend of the economy in general in a period which many see as touchy and critical.

That the government will be spending more next year is taken for granted. The tantalizing questions just now are what, if any, civilian programs may be curtailed, or postponed because of the increased costs of the military efforts in Southeast Asia. Just how the larger defense spending will show up in orders for various industries, and individual corporations, will be awaited impatiently in Wall Street.

The stock market seems to have accepted the Federal Reserve Board's contention that increased interest rates won't reverse the upward trend of business and consumer spending, only hold it in moderate limits.

But Wall Street doesn't write off the political effects of the Fed's difference of opinion with the White House over the need for a monetary check rein on the business expansion now.

Nor does it escape notice that the Federal Reserve Board itself was closely split on the decision to raise rates. Minority members are on record as believing that the increase should have awaited more definite word on what shape the federal budget would finally take.

President Johnson can appoint a new member to the board next month. And he could name an easy money man more attuned to the President's own views to succeed a conservative member whose term of office is expiring.

See Mystical Attraction For Golden Gate Painters

EDITOR'S NOTE — Like to work 75 stories up, painting the Golden Gate Bridge? Sorry, but this is "not just any bridge." The painters rarely quit, none has ever been killed, and there are far more applicants than jobs.

By LYLE W. PRICE

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — There's an almost mystical attraction to the Golden Gate Bridge, at least for the painters who climb to fearsome heights daily to renew its world-famed orange glow.

"The bridge grows on you; it becomes part of you," says Hale Sharrett, a husky ex-Navy man who supervises a 40-man painting crew.

The painting boss replaces his calm, steady gaze with a look of surprise when asked why a person would work at heights up to 746 feet above swirling riptides.

"Why this is the Golden Gate Bridge you're talking about, not just any bridge!" he exclaims.

This magnetism has also drawn millions of tourists — and 286 known suicides — in the bridge's 28-year history.

It also thrills drivers and passengers who cross the 4,200-foot suspension bridge, says James Adam, general manager of the bridge. Some 345 million vehicles have crossed the bridge since it opened in 1937.

Another 1.5 million pedestrians have strolled the bridge's walkways, usually in couples, or families, almost always with cameras. Only rarely will they see the painters, who usually are specks high up on the towers, or hidden from view under the deck.

The painters continuously paint its 10 million square feet of deck, towers, supports and cables.

The bridge, second in length by only 50 feet to New York's new Verrazano Narrows Bridge, is on its fifth complete painting.

Each paint job is done completely by hand brushing, using successive coats of red lead primer, intermediate brown and its public face, international orange.

The outer color is a reddish-orange hue that sometimes dismays tourists who expect a golden color. Orange was selected from the start because of superior visibility, durability and harmony with surrounding hills of green and brown. The bridge's name was taken from the harbor entrance, the Golden Gate.

The bridge's appeal draws far more applicants than can be used in the painting crew.

"Our men have been on the job an average of 15 years," Sharrett says, "so you see we don't have many vacancies. But we get about two new applicants a day."

The supervisor, a 19-year veteran who worked up from rookie painter, says he can tell in a day whether a new man is scared.

"I think it's fair to say one must have 'iron nerves' for this job," he declares. "We have had would-be painters freeze on the railing."

Besides iron nerves, the painter must also have two years' experience as a journeyman painter and one year of painting structural steel or bridges at considerable heights.

The jobs, which pay $800 a month, are demanding mostly because of "terrible weather — foggy in summer and windy in winter," Sharrett says.

Despite painting eight hours, five days a week — covering 1,200 square feet of flat surface or 400 square feet of cables on an average day — the men don't feel bored.

"It's a long way from being a dull job," Sharrett asserts. "There's something different every day. We've had wrecks, fires, jumpers — anything can happen on the bridge."

"There have been several instances where painters have rescued would-be suicides," says Sharrett's boss, the maintenance superintendent, R. D. Mullins.

"If the painters see the suicide on the railing," Mullins said, "maybe we can get there in time, since the jumper usually goes over the railing and stands on the beams underneath, then jumps."

Sharrett again assumed a look of surprise when asked what thoughts run through his mind at the top of a tower, 75 stories above water, even though he is protected by a safety belt, an emergency net and good sense from a plunge to certain death.

"Nothing — you think of nothing up there," he said.

If painters do think, he said, it's in terms of safety, not danger.

"We have an excellent safety record. Not one painter has fallen to his death."

A worker is automatically fired if he isn't wearing his safety belt on the job, Sharrett said. Large rope nets follow the men as they work.

The nets are similar to the type that caught and saved the lives of 19 workmen when the bridge was being built. Ten workers were killed near the end of construction, however, when a scaffold gave way and ripped a safety net apart. Two other workers, not painters, died under similar circumstances a decade ago.

The bridge itself was built to withstand earthquakes, a matter of vital importance in a city that still measures all earth temblors by its great earthquake of 1906.

The bridge also is designed to withstand a side sway totaling 27.7 feet and an up-and-down sway of 11.8 feet. It rode out its most severe test, a 69-mile-per-hour windstorm in 1951, with an up-and-down buckling of about 10 feet.

The bridge was closed nearly three hours then, the only time it has not been in full operation.

Only One Thing Wrong About Christmas Season

By HAL BOYLE

Such as:

The cheerful sounds and bright colors, the fun of decorating the tree and putting the holly wreath on the door, the reunion with loved ones, the holiness of its mystic meaning, the steaming joys of a full table, kissing under the mistletoe, the great expectations about what presents you will get.

Yes, there are many, many things right about Christmas but there's one thing wrong about it.

That is, getting as presents exactly the things you don't want.

A fellow can survive the fact he doesn't find his heart's desire wrapped up under the tree on Christmas morning. He can put up with being surprised by unexpected gifts he has no real need for. But what really rubs his spirit raw is to untie half a mile of ribbons and unwind two acres of paper—and find therein something that is precisely what he did not desire, or actively dislikes.

"The trouble with Christmas," he groans in self-pity, "is that it is overcommercialized."

But actually, it is largely his own fault. Many of us are too shy or bashful to tell Santa Claus what we want. It is too much like begging.

There is nothing wrong, however, in writing Santa a letter such as this:

"I don't care what you bring me, just so you don't bring me something that makes me blow my top. Here is a list of things I particularly have no desire for, and if you bring me any of them, I warn you I will put a booby trap in my chimney to blow you up next Christmas Eve."

Any such list of unwanted presents is purely personal, of course. Here is the cranky list of don't you dare bring me things I sent to Santa Claus:

Mufflers with fringes on them. I can always use another muffler or two, even though I have 37. But I can't stand them with fringes.

No bicycles, tricycles, scooters, wagons, hobby horses or doll houses that come unassembled in crates. If Santa Claus can't understand the directions on how to put them together, neither can I.

Cigarette lighters adorned with glass-encased nude nymphs who shimmy when the flame is lit.

Any fruit cake or country ham, baked in a Brooklyn basement by a defrocked Chinese chef, but mailed from "May Yancey's olde fashioned, handtended hickory hearth in Corncob, Tenn."

Any other gift which, after keeping hidden in a drawer for 12 months, I don't have the courage to rewrap and send to someone else next year.

Soviet Resentment Runs High Among Red Chinese

By ALESSANDRO CASELLA
For The Associated Press

Popular resentment against the Soviet Union runs high in Communist China.

Hatred of the Americans basically is directed against the U.S. government rather than the American people as such.

Although there is no anti-Russian campaign, and press coverage of the Chinese-Soviet rift runs mostly along ideological grounds, I have found a great personal resentment against the Russian people.

The reason lies in the fact that while America is essentially an abstract enemy which has never really been seen, there have been numerous personal contacts between the Chinese and Russian people.

Thousands of Soviet experts worked for years side by side with the Chinese. When the Soviet-Chinese rift came to light, the Russians left practically overnight and the resulting temporary chaos created among the people a strong resentment against the Russians as such.

The Chinese make an effort to demonstrate they do not hate foreign peoples, but have resentment only for foreign governments. Americans are depicted as friendly. Demonstrations in America against the current U.S. policy in Viet Nam are heavily publicized.

The actual state of relations between the two countries, plus the Chinese ideological posture, has resulted in misrepresentation of America.

The Watts riots in Los Angeles were given extensive coverage by Peking television and were depicted as an uprising by oppressed Americans against what was called Washington's capitalistic policy. Another misrepresentation concerns morale of American troops in Viet Nam. In China I have been repeatedly asked if I did not think that American morale over Viet Nam was crumbling.

If hatred of the Russians is alive among the Chinese population, the impact of Viet Nam on the life of the average Chinese is daily growing stronger.

Emotional involvement in what is, geographically, a foreign war, has reached such a high level that it has become an essential part of Chinese Domestic policy. The whole of the country from the teeming metropolis to the remotest village is being swamped by propaganda pictures and slogans on the war in Viet Nam.

While the over-all picture is one of a country that seems on the verge of war psychosis, a closer analysis of the situation reveals a somewhat more subtle state of affairs.

The attitude of the masses toward the war in Viet Nam and toward America is more of concern than of hatred, but the official attitude of the government is one of great caution.

The Chinese government has been very careful to avoid getting itself into a situation where it might be almost forced in the face of its public opinion to intervene against its will in Viet Nam.

Recollections of China's intervention in Korea raised the possibility of intervening in Viet Nam. However, the two situations are profoundly different.

In Korea, China not only enjoyed Soviet support but also considered her vital interests in Manchuria were being threatened.

In Viet Nam Russian support is lacking. Moreover, since North Viet Nam still acts as a buffer state, it is reasonable to assume that as long as the American commitments do not increase to the point of threatening China's vital interests, China will not intervene.

JAKARTA, Indonesia (AP) — Merchants closed their stores in the Jakarta market and near panic broke out among the people today after the government announced it is slashing the face value of Indonesia's currency.

Radio Jakarta broadcast repeated appeals to the population to remain calm and to shopkeepers to reopen. Development Minister Chaerul Saleh warned merchants not to raise their prices and threatened to punish those who did under the subversion act, which provices for capital punishment.

The government announced it will issue a new rupiah worth 1,000 of those now in circulation in an effort to deal with the country's rising inflation.

CARTAGENA, Spain (AP) — The Panamanian freighter Vesper was reported on fire and sinking in the Mediterranean today after all but one of her 35 Italian crew members were brought to this port by the Norwegian ship Rubistream.

The survivors said the missing sailor died in the fire. The blaze was believed to have broken out in the engine room while the Vesper was 25 miles off Cape Gata, south of Cartagena. She was en route from the Ivory Coast to Marseille.

TOKYO (AP) — Domei, the moderate Japan Federation of Labor, ended a two-day executive meeting today after adopting a policy statement opposing presence of U.S. troops in Japan in peacetime.

Domei, organized last year, is affiliated with the middle-of-the-road Democratic Socialist party and has a membership of 1.8 million.

VENICE, Italy (AP) — Police say they have recovered $500,000 worth of stolen art words and smashed a ring of art thieves after eight years of investigation.

The 85 art pieces recovered include a Madonna of the Botticelli school. The works were taken from more than 50 churches and homes in northern Italy.

Police filed charges against 11 Italians and said they were checking whether 20 antique dealers in Rome, Genoa, Florence and Milan had accepted the stolen goods.

NEW YORK (AP) — Entertainer Sammy Davis Jr. and his wife, actress May Britt, are back home today after adopting a second son in Los Angeles.

Nab Three Juveniles On Cooking Spree

Three juvenile boys who returned Tuesday to a Sedalia residence to cook steaks they had stolen the day before have been turned over to Juvenile Officer Cecil Glenn, police say.

Officers told the story this way:

The youths broke into the Billy Jobe residence, Washington and Clay, Monday and stole the steaks. Tuesday they forced entry again, cooked the steaks, left four plates on the table, a dirty skillet in the sink, vandalized a reclining chair, wrote on a wall and opened some Christmas packages.

Jobe told officers he saw three boys run from the house as he returned home Tuesday afternoon.

Police cleared the case Wednesday morning.

sters would not have to walk to currently established bus stops. The stops were reported as a half-mile from the Mallory home and a mile from the Chappell residence.

Granted by the board were requests from the East Sedalia Baptist Church and the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints to use the elementary school gymnasiums for church basketball teams. The board also waived the normal $10 per night rental fee on these gymnasiums.

Superintendent Norris informed the board of a recent letter he had received from Pettis County Prosecuting Attorney J. R. Fritz stating that Missouri Attorney General Norman Anderson has given an opinion that school boards have the power to employ attendants for school children while traveling to and from school. Sedalia's City Council, which currently employs school crossing guards, had discussed the attorney general's opinion at its last meeting, but the Board of Education passed over the issue without discussion.

"However, it is the opinion of several local attorneys," Supt. Norris told the board, "that persons employed by the board would have no authority or jurisdiction over traffic control and would have no more authority than our regular school boy patrol."

Other purchases approved by the board included new health scales to replace dilapidated ones at Washington and Heber Hunt elementary schools at a cost of $70 per scale; and the purchase of the following equipment under the National Defense Education Act program: a 16 mm. movie projector, $474.50; five overhead projectors, $129.50 each; two portable science tables, $225 each. The latter purchases were approved upon recommendation of P. A. Sillers, director of elementary education.

Accepted by the board was the resignation of Mrs. Yolande Cline as part-time secretary at Jefferson School effective Dec. 1. She had been replaced by Mrs. Barbara English and her employment was given board approval.

A recent vacancy in the Smith-Cotton custodian staff resulted in the transfer of Lloyd Gudenschwager from the S-C cafeteria to the high school building with an upgrade in salary and this change was approved by the board.

The board has in the past discussed the advisability of employing a purchasing agent, but Supt. Norris reported his investigation of such an employee's duties had indicated the salary of a competent person apparently could not be justified. Norris pointed out the major part of the school system's budget lies in salaries, balances necessary to carry from one tax period to another, utilities, textbooks and some other items over which a purchasing agent or business manager would have no control.

Sam Boyle, executive director of the Chamber of Commerce, presented the program at Optimist Club Tuesday noon at Bothwell Hotel, showing the film, "The American City—Sedalia, Mo.," produced locally for the purpose of interesting industry in the city.

Wray Schroeder, president of the Optimist Club, the first organization before which it has been shown, commented on the beauty of the film and the many wonderful advantages the city has that perhaps the people of the town just take for granted. Sedalians seeing the film, he said, will have a greater appreciation of their city, as well as industries for whom the picture was really filmed.

Schroeder expressed the feeling of his fellow Optimists, for many of them remarked about the exceptional beauty of the entire town in scenes of various places, buildings, and activities captured in the pictures, as well as the many benefits of the surrounding area because of the location of the town.

Prior to the showing of the picture Boyle talked briefly on the progress of Sedalia the past year and the prospects for the year ahead. He complimented the mayor and the city council for the way they had cooperated in helping the city go forward.

With Bill Hall, the new industrial director, the profitable year for the people in the rural area, the return of Boeing, the upturn in business, the expansion of industry, this promises to be a good year ahead, he said.

Boyle pointed out that two important issues would be coming up to be voted on within the next few months. The Sedalia Renewal program will be up for approval in February which will bring about, if approved, an improvement in both residential and business areas. Then, at the school election, which Boyle said would be in April, the Junior College proposal will be voted on. If passed, it would bring not only a Junior College to Pettis County, but a vocational school as well, both of which are greatly needed here.

Boyle was introduced by R. L. Settles, program chairman.

Schroeder presided over the meeting with invocation by Lee Deason. Singing was led by Jim Ripley, with Mrs. Lillian Maynard at the piano.

Introduced were: D. I. Sevier and Kenny Schilb, guests of Wray Schroeder; Milton Matthews, guest of Lee Deason; and Jack Wineinger, guest of Marvin Kueck.

Dr. Richard Arnold, a member of the club who is now in Columbia, also attended the meeting.

POLICE URGE CAUTION—Chief of Police William Miller has called on local businessmen to be especially careful in granting requests to cash bank money orders of this type. Shown here is a sample of a bogus money order cashed recently in the area. The money orders were stolen in late November in a Kansas City safe burglary, Chief Miller said, and have been cashed in Marshall, Clinton and Hannibal. Stolen were 165 of the money order with serial numbers ranging from 0026842 to 0027007. Police suspect attempts to cash the money orders will be made here. Targets have been supermarkets, drug stores and clothing stores. All the money orders are for amounts up to $100.

Ray Thornton, 300 West Pettis, reported the theft of a 16-inch portable television Tuesday morning. Entrance to the house was gained by prying the front door. The television was valued at $100.

Thieves made off with approximately 40 gallons of gasoline, siphoned from five different trucks overnight Tuesday at the Howard Ready-Mix plant, 201 North Engineer. Police are investigating.

Two young men who police say are absent without leave from the Army were picked up Wednesday morning by Sgt. Perry Franklin and Patrolman Robert Vogler at 2037 East Seventh.

They were identified as John Petree, 1704 East 16th, Sedalia, and Larry E. Meeks, Decatur, Ill. The two are being held for military authorities, police said.

● Fires In City

Sedalia firemen were called to 402 East Boonville at 5:03 p.m. Tuesday where a fire was believed to be out of control. Upon arrival, however, it was discovered that someone was only burning trash. Firemen called the alarm an honest mistake.

● Accidents

Mrs. Rose Anna Sanders, 37, of Smithton, was admitted to Bothwell Hospital Tuesday night for observation following an accident on U.S. Highway 65, across from the Country Club about 11:56 o'clock.

Mrs. Sanders was driving a 1963 Oldsmobile sedan headed south when the car angled from the southbound traffic lane across the highway and struck a Public Service Co., utility pole snapping it in two.

Mrs. Roger Brown, of Route 1, Sedalia, who was driving behind the car described the accident. She said the car did not appear to be speeding. Mrs. Brown is a technician in the laboratory at the hosital and remained with Mrs. Sanders at the scene and then went to the hospital.

Mrs. Sanders was taken to the hospital in the McLaughlin ambulance where Dr. B. L. Boatright examined her and had her admitted for further observation. According to Mrs. Sanders she apparently blacked out while driving.

Relatives reported she was staying with her sister-in-law, Mrs. Wayne Sartain, and had left the home a few minutes before. Mr. Sartain is a patient in the hospital suffering severe injuries received several days ago.

Mrs. Mimi Kraus, 28, wife of Dick Kraus, Southern Hills, was painfully injured Tuesday night when a four by six beam 20 feet long fell and struck her on the head. Mrs. Kraus and her husband were working in the family room of their home installing the beam when it slipped and fell.

She suffered a gash about four inches long on the top of the head and was taken to Bothwell Hospital where Dr. Don Proctor rendered medical treatment and took several stitches to close the wound. X-ray pictures were taken to determine if she suffered a fracture.

Mrs. Kraus was admitted for further observation.

Five-year-old Keith Burghardt, son of Chief Warrant Officer Paul Burghardt, Whiteman AFB, was slightly injured Tuesday when he ran out from behind a parked car into a school bus driven by Stephen G. Russman of Knob Noster at the base.

Keith's parents were in Kansas City at the time of the accident and were contacted through the Highway Patrol in Lee's Summit. Base officials reported that the injuries were minor.

Rickey Williams, 15, 1706 West 18th, was treated by Dr. D. R. Edwards Tuesday for a gunshot wound to the right foot. According to police, the youth was cleaning the .22-caliber rifle when it accidentally discharged.

The 1700 block of West Broadway was the scene of a two-car accident at 5:41 p.m. Tuesday requiring one car to be towed from the scene.

A 1965 Oldsmobile, driven by William McCaskell, 40, Columbia, collided with a 1960 Falcon, driven by Forrest D. Smith, 39, 1020 East 13th.

Tenth and Ohio was the scene of a two-car collision at 5:13 p.m. Tuesday.

Involved were a 1955 Ford, driven by Christine S. Ratje, 53, 722 East Tenth, and a 1964 Ford, driven by Victor Martin Doogs, 39, Route 1.

The right front of the Ratje auto and the left front and side of the Doogs car were damaged.

Mrs. Ratje was issued a police summons for careless and imprudent driving and is to appear in police court, Dec. 21.

Festive Holiday Air At Police Station

Sedalia police headquarters has taken on a festive holiday air as officers erected and decorated a nine-foot Christmas tree Wednesday morning.

The tree is in preparation for the department's annual Christmas party for children — scheduled for this Saturday, Dec. 18, from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Youngsters will be treated with a bag containing candy and an orange from Santa Claus, who is to be on hand to make note of Christmas requests.

● Police Court

Forrest D. Smith, 1020 East 13th, charged with careless and imprudent driving in connection with an accident, pleaded innocent, but after a hearing was found guilty and fined $10. The fine was suspended by the court.

● Sheriff Report

Byrd's Grocery Store, operated by Lowell and Ina Byrd at Houstonia, was burglarized overnight Tuesday and the thieves made off with cash and merchandise valued at nearly $950.

Deputy Sheriff Jack Couts, who investigated for the Pettis County Sheriff's Department, said the burglars broke into the rear door and ransacked the store.

Counted in the loss, Couts said, were $85 in cash, an adding machine, some 50 cartons of cigarettes, 12 dozen pair of men's gloves, candy, 25 boxes of shotgun shells, a quantity of .22 caliber rifle shells, assorted merchandise, foodstuffs and cosmetic type items. The owners were continuing to take inventory of missing items.

The break-in was discovered about 6:30 a.m., Couts said, as the store was being opened. Tire tracks from an automobile were left behind the store.

● Area Fires

Fire destroyed the rural residence of the R. L. (Bob) Bailey family, Route 2, Green Ridge, Sunday afternoon and the loss was estimated at a total of $9,000.

The Pettis County Fire Department answered the alarm at 4:10 p.m., but on arrival found the home completely ablaze. The Baileys were away at the time and the alarm was turned in when a neighbor observed the fire.

Telephone wires on that line were knocked out by the fire causing a delay in turning in the alarm. County firemen said the fire was believed to have originated from a deep freeze.

● Circuit Court

Charles M. Smethers, 20, 2300 East Broadway, who sustained a back injury in a three-vehicle accident at Broadway and Quincy on Aug. 6 this year, was awarded a $1,500 damage judgment Tuesday in Circuit Court.

Named as defendant in the lawsuit filed and settled in the same day was A. J. Caldwell, also of Sedalia.

Caldwell was the driver of a city-owned Street & Alley Department truck which struck the Smethers youth's sports car in the rear when Smethers' auto was stopped behind another car.

Smethers was represented in the court action by his mother, Esther O. Smethers, acting as next friend.

A pro forma decree of incorporation for the Sheltered Workshop here was granted in Circuit Court Wednesday by Judge Frank Hayes. Officers of the workshop, a part of the Children's Therapy Center, filed a petition requesting the decree last Friday.

ages of students between ages 5 and 17 who are under ADC or their families earn less than $2,000 annually. The percentage of these students in each of the elementary districts was listed as follows: Hubbard, 56.4 per cent; Jefferson, 21.5 per cent; Whittier, 19.37 per cent; Horace Mann, 12.4 per cent; Mark Twain, 12.18 per cent; Washington, 10.15 per cent; and Heber Hunt, .75 per cent.

To begin participation in the education program this year, Norris recommended extension of the employment — for those who wish to do so—of present teaching personnel beyond school hours to provide manpower for the programs. He recommended these programs:

1. Remedial reading, elementary and secondary levels.

2. Remedial arithmetic, elementary and secondary levels.

3. Extension of the employment of a speech therapist to 5:30 p.m.

4. Establishment of study centers at each of the three designated elementary schools and Smith-Cotton High School, improvements to libraries for this purpose.

5. Extension of the employment of guidance counselors both on elementary and secondary levels.

6. Purchase of additional equipment and educational aids.

Utilizing present school personnel who wish to obtain the additional salaries appears to be the only way that the Sedalia schools can put a program into effect this year, Norris reported. Planning, however, would begin immediately for next school term when additional personnel could be employed.

But the possibility of the Sedalia schools utilizing the full $167,000 allocation for this year appears remote due to the late start. The allocation for this year runs from the present to June 30, but programs must be set up before any funds can be received here.

An incongruity in federal and Missouri laws exists in relation to the program in that the federal government requires that the program be open to parochial students as well as public school children. Under Missouri law, however, a student attending a public school must do so for the full day. But Norris reported the late afternoon hours slated for the educational programs bring compliance with federal requirements as parochial students are out of school for the day and may participate.

In the districts where programs are established, children will be given achievement tests to determine their eligibility and need for the extra educational advantages. However, youngsters must reside in the previously mentioned need areas before being eligible.

As an example, a youngster from Heber Hunt district—lowest district in percentage of economically deprived children — might meet the economic criteria, but would be ineligible to participate because his district is not one of the specific need areas.

Administration of funds under the federal act won't require expenditure of local school funds and then a wait for federal reimbursement. Allocations are to be made to the district here monthly after budgets are submittted. Any excess funds would, of course, have to be refunded to the federal government.

Concert At Tipton

The Sedalia Men's Choral Club, under the direction of John Vandekamp, presented its annual Christmas concert Tuesday night at the Missouri State Prison for Women at Tipton.

Following the concert, in which the inmates joined in the singing of carols, the choral club was treated to refreshments and some of the members provided additional musical entertainment.

Christmas Customs Are Explained

"Christmas in Rhodesia, as in America, is a time to be thankful for family, friends and opportunities," Miss Elizabeth Mackey, American Association of University Women exchange student from Salisbury, Rhodesia, South Africa, told more than 140 Rotarians and guests at the Rotary Christmas party held Monday evening in the upstairs dining room at the Old Missouri Homestead.

Miss Mackey is a senior at Smith-Cotton High School this year, and was recently selected as honorary activity queen by Smith-Cotton students. She arrived last August and is living with the William Hopkins family during her year in Sedalia.

In describing her family, she said her mother was a school teacher, her father an employee of a mining company and her brother a student in high school. Every year at Christmastime, Miss Mackey stated, her family meets with friends from Johannesburg, S. Africa, either at their home in Salisbury or in Johannesburg and on Christmas eve the children present a concert of singing and dancing for their parents on an outdoor stage, since December is in mid-summer in Rhodesia. After the concert the parents and children sing carols on the outside patio until late at night. Christmas afternoon is spent in the swimming pool and playing games around the pool. The children look forward to Christmas dinner and particularly the Christmas pudding, because each serving has money inside, and the parents see that an equal amount is included for all children . . . but they can go back for second helpings which they do.

The public holiday is Dec. 26, and is known as Boxing Day, for on this day the servants are presented with Christmas boxes of gifts. The natives are not Christians, but they enjoy their Christmas Boxing Day. The gifts welcomed most by the natives, according to Miss Mackey, are money and cigarettes.

Miss Mackey was introduced by William Hopkins.

The Sedalia Men's Choral Club, under the direction of John Vandekamp, opened the evening's program with a varied selection of musical numbers which included several Christmas carols. Piano accompaniment was by Mrs. Lillian Maynard. This portion of the program was introduced by Elmer McClung.

Fred Crnic, president, recognized the members of the social committee composed of Leroy Iuchs, Bernie Devine, Stanley Fisher, Undrill Renshaw, Gaylan Cope, Elmer McClung and Rich Johnson, who had charge of arranging the program.

Invocation was given by the Rev. J. R. Wallace and group singing was led by James Denny.

A&P Executive On Visit To Sedalia Store

J. F. Feehan, recently appointed executive vice-president in charge of the Kansas City unit of the A & P grocery chain, visited the local A & P in Sedalia Tuesday along with other officials of the chain.

According to William L. Watson, manager of the Sedalia store, Feehan was accompanied by Herbert A. Alexander, sales manager of the chain, Harold B. Connor, head of the personnel department and Robert S. Hallstrom, district supervisor. Connor is a former Sedalian, having lived here while district supervisor of A & P.

Watson stated that the purpose of the party's visit was to inspect the new A & P store, located at 1305 South Limit, as well as the several new supermarkets constructed by rival chains in the city within the past few years.

From Pound to Shelter

Inexorably the noiseless foot of time is stepping off the distance from an inadequate and often criticized animal pound on East Hogan street to the site of a new animal shelter to be built east of Sedalia's present west sewage plant.

Construction bids will be received at the city clerk's office up until 5 o'clock Monday December 20.

This constitutes a progress report on a local condition that has for a long time distressed not only the Humane Society but also owners of pets or those who are tender-hearted about the manner in which animals are eliminated.

Furthermore, animal lovers will appreciate the change in terminology from "pound" to "animal shelter." This in itself sounds more humane although the purpose of either is the same—an enclosure, maintained by public authority, in which animals may be confined when taken in trespassing or when going at large in violation of city ordinances; or where seized animals may be kept until redeemed, usually at a fixed charge for board and housing.

How soon the new shelter will be available is uncertain but it ought to be ready long before the spring season when dogs, cats and other animals feel the urge to roam. This type of trespassing usually brings smothered curses from local gardeners.

When the adequate shelter is completed there should be more public interest in its purposes as a place for confinement of animals where they will receive humane treatment whether awaiting redemption or death.

Parenthetically, the new shelter will also provide a humane place to which Pettis county citizens outside of Sedalia can return animals which are dumped by Sedalians on rural properties if this practice continues.

Some of our rural citizens say they can appreciate why Sedalians don't want to take their animals to a discredited dog pound and would rather turn them loose out in the country.

But with a new shelter being erected they insist city folks should use it for the animals they don't want. Taking them there—to the new shelter when completed — would be much more humane than turning the cats and dogs loose out in the country to starve or be a burden on farmers who already have enough pets.

Diet and the Economy

According to Sylvia Porter, the financial economist, watching one's weight decides what goes into the refrigerator.

Skimmed milk, lean meat, low calorie vegetables, margarine instead of butter, half and half (or no cream at all) are the products that go on the shelves and freezing compartments.

All of these foods have a direct affect on the producers. Cattle men are now breeding cattle which will produce lean steaks. High butter fat is no longer a mark of good dairy cattle.

Sales of low calorie drinks, prescription weight control drugs and gym equipment have sky rocketed. Even steam baths are rapidly becoming a household necessity.

Sylvia says a specific diet may be a passing fad, but the trend toward slimness and trimness is fundamental and will not pass. Millions of individuals are not only changing their own shapes but the shape of the economy, as well.

Washington Merry-Go-Round

Right Politicians Can Be Helpful

By DREW PEARSON

WASHINGTON — Firms who want to do business in the Virgin Islands are learning that what it takes is not business skill but skill in playing politics in Washington. You have to hire the right lawyer who knows the right people and you have to pay him.

The Virgin Islands, once branded by Herbert Hoover as "An effective poorhouse," have been trying to get a certain amount of industry in order to refute the Hoover label. To that end, two U. S. companies in the islands have been importing Italian wool cloth, which is waterproofed and then sent, duty-free, into the continental United States. The amount imported is determined by quota set by Gov. Ralph Paiewonsky and a wool board.

The other day, a representative of a woolen firm, the Vitex Corporation, Mrs. Helen Blumberg, approached John Kirwan, in charge of Virgin Island affairs for the Interior Department and at that time a member of the Wool Board (later he resigned). John is the son of Mike Kirwan, potent Democratic congressman from Youngstown, Ohio, who as chairman of the Appropriations Committee for the Interior Department has life or death power over that department's activities. Naturally, it was not hard for his son to get a job in this department, but this column has reported that he has done a good job.

Since waterproof wool from Italy is not competitive with American domestic wool, and since the Vitex Corporation was anxious to stabilize its production in the Virgin Islands, Mrs. Blumberg asked Kirwan how the company could get the VI quota reinstated. The quota had previously been 7,000,000 yards, but Gov. Paiewonsky, afraid of a speech by Sen. Herman Talmadge, D-Ga., against wool imports, had choppped it down to 1,800,000 for the entire islands in 1966, of which Vitex would get only 900,000 yards, not enough to justify operation.

The Right Lawyer

Specifically, Mrs. Blumberg asked if she should hire a lawyer and whether Meyer Feldman, former counsel for Presidents Kennedy and Johnson, would be the right man.

"Mike Feldman's a fine man," replied young Kirwan.

He added that as a government servant he was not free to recommend anyone but that he could mention one or two, including Fred Fayette of Burlington, Vt., who had several Virgin Islands clients, and Paul McGowan, a Washington attorney who represents the Virgin Islands legislature.

"If I were trying to do what you are trying to do in the Virgin Islands," he added, "there's only one man I would go to—Paul McGowan. My father loves him. He's a great friend of Speaker McCormack's. He's going to have dinner with us Saturday night. In my opinion he's the only man who could straighten this out.

"Of course," he said, "I don't want you to think I'm suggesting anyone."

Mrs. Blumberg went immediately to Attorney McGowan. He seemed to know about the wool situation in the islands. "I think the speaker had an interest in a company down there," he said.

He referred to the Kent Corporation, run by Joseph Slifka of the Slifka Corporation, a friend of Cardinal Spellman's. The Cardinal had sent Slifka to McCormack, and, working through Martin Sweig in the speaker's office and John Kirwan in the Interior Department, Slifka's wool quota for the first year of operation had been generously increased.

McGowan wanted a fee of $100,000 from Mrs. Blumberg if he upped the Virgin Island wool quota, and an initial retainer of $10,000 whether he succeeded or not.

This seemed like a lot of money, and he finally agreed to an initial retainer of $5,000. Mrs. Blumberg tentatively agreed.

McGowan asked her to come back on Saturday. At that time he reported that he had lunched with John Kirwan on Thursday, dined with the family on Friday "and I think I've got him sewed up."

"The old man loves me," said McGowan, referring to Congressman Mike Kirwan. "We go on fishing trips together. I hold his hand when he takes his insulin shots. He tried to switch to oral insulin, but had to go back to injections."

Stopped Payment

Mrs. Blumberg returned to Washington a third time with a check for $5,000 in her purse, ready to pay McGowan part of his fee. At this point, however, I learned of the matter and advised her against the payment.

Ever since my father served as the first civilian governor of the islands I have kept in touch with island affairs, and it seemed to me McGowan was in a conflict of interest position to be taking a fee for a case affecting the Virgin Islands.

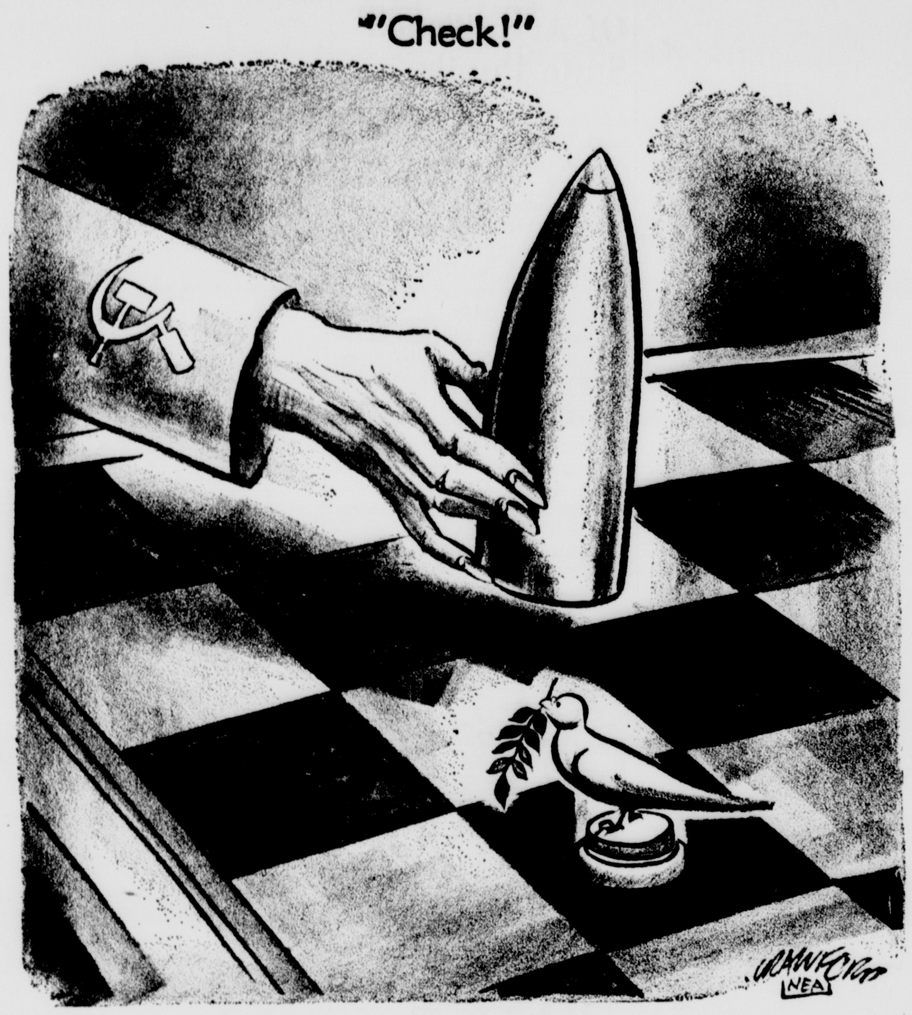
I telephoned Gov. Paiewonsky in St. Thomas, confirmed the fact that McGowan received $15,000 from the VI legislature. I also sent a staff member to see McGowan. He was not in but later phoned Mrs. Blumberg.

"I hear Drew Pearson is checking up on me," he said. "I want you to know that if I get any publicity you'll be the one who'll suffer. I control the Virgin Islands."

He thereupon withdrew from the case.

Later John Kirwan phoned me to say that McGowan had consulted Earl Ottley, president of the Virgin Islands legislature, as to a conflict of interest if he accepted a fee in the wool quota case and was assured there would be none.

More on the fantastic story of lobbying concerning the tiniest and most helpless appendage of the USA will follow soon.



The World Today

Talking Way Out Of Kashmir 'Box'

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP)—Friendship in the modern world is like cats on a tin roof, which is hardly a quiet way to spend an evening.

The United States has been friends with Pakistan, whose President Mohammed Ayub Khan is here talking to President Johnson, and with India, whose Prime Minister Lal Bahadur Shastri is coming here in February to talk to Johnson.

They want to get out of the box they got themselves into with their undeclared war over Kashmir in the fall.

Pakistan, thinking the odds are on its side, wants the people of Kashmir to decide in a vote whether they want to be part of Pakistan or India. India, which doesn't like the odds, wants no part of a vote.

If Johnson can settle this dispute, he's a miracle man, but he's not supposed to settle it since the United Nations hopes to. Over the years the United States has given India and Pakistan over $10 billion in aid.

At first it gave military aid to Pakistan, which built up its army, and thus was a kind of buffer to the ambitions of Red China. India, playing lofty and neutralist, didn't pay so much attention to arms.

Then the Red Chinese attacked India, which then cried for American arms, and got them. But when India and Pakistan began to fight both blamed the United States for arming the other.

The United States shut off aid to both. Pakistani mobs ripped the American flag, attacked U.S. buildings, and Pakistan began cottoning up to the Red Chinese.

But those two good old friends, the Soviet Union and Red China, got into the India-Pakistan act, with Red China blaming the Soviets for helping India while the Russian's criticized China for butting in on Pakistan's side.

British Prime Minister Harold Wilson was to leave London today to come talk to Johnson about some problems, like how to get U.S. support for an oil embargo against Rhodesia which just left the Commonwealth.

Next week West German Chancellor Ludwig Erhard is coming to talk to Johnson. While Britain and Germany are economic rivals, the British and the United States want German help in keeping the North Atlantic Treaty Organization together.

Right now it's getting a battering from French President Charles de Gaulle who doesn't want Germany to have nuclear arms, although the two countries consider themselves friends, while France builds a nuclear arsenal.

Tuesday at a NATO meeting in Paris the French and German foreign ministers got into an argument over it. But De Gaulle, running for re-election, manages to keep busy in many directions.

Interviewed on television in his political campaign, De Gaulle criticized the United States Tuesday for becoming an "interventionist power," quarreled with its policy in Viet Nam and declared, "I am not anti-American."

He said this country and France had been friends more than a century, that France would always come to America's aid, and that while America came to the aid of France in two world wars it was a little late.

But if all this sounds like a noisy time in the West, the meowing going on between the Soviet Union and Red China, those one-time comrades, is enough to frighten the mice, if there are any mice around.

Here is another family conversation:

Oswald: "While on the subject of squeezes, I think you ought to tell our readers about the crisscross squeeze that Nate Silverstein of Memphis made to help you win the Masters' Pairs in Montgomery."

Jim: "It was a beautiful play, wasn't it? I sat North and I must say that I didn't know what to bid after West opened the bidding. I finally selected a takeout double, which gave me a further problem after Nate made the proper response of four spades."

Oswald: "Your Blackwood four no-trump was a good solution to the problem of getting control of the bidding. Then when Nate showed an ace, you decided to go to a slam and Nate found himself as declarer at six diamonds with one little diamond in his hand."

Jim: "It was essential that he be declarer. If I were declarer a club or spade opening lead by East would have beaten me automatically. But West had no satisfactory lead. He finallly opened the ace of hearts and continued the suit."

Oswald: "All Nate had to do now was to run off dummy's eight trumps and discard six spades, a heart, and a diamond from his hand. This left West with only three cards. He couldn't guard both kings, could he?"

Jim: "No, he couldn't. Actually he unguarded the club king, hoping that his partner might hold the queen, but the hope was forlorn. Nate led dummy's ace of clubs, crossed back to his hand with his ace of spades, and cashed his queen of clubs for the 12th trick.

THE DOCTOR'S MAILBAG

Some Ways to Lessen Distress of Phlebitis

By Wayne G. Brandstadt, M.D.
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

Q — I have phlebitis in both legs. My doctor is giving me pills and says I should stay off my feet. I've done this for seven months and am no better. What do you advise?

A — Phlebitis is an inflammation of a vein. This may occur following an operation or childbirth, but is far less common than it used to be thanks to the modern trend of getting patients out of bed on the day after. When the deep veins of the leg are involved there is usually some clotting with a resultant swelling of the legs and tenderness to pressure.

There is no simple treatment. Following the acute stage during which bed rest and the local application of heat is required, the victim should apply an elastic bandage. This gives better support than an elastic stocking and is cheaper.

When sitting you should keep your legs elevated on a footstool and when standing you should wiggle your toes and rise on tiptoe frequently to keep your circulation going.

Put props eight inches high under the foot of your bed to facilitate the return flow of blood from your legs. Avoid long periods of sitting such as on a long auto trip or watching a double-feature movie. Swimming or wading in deep water is an excellent form of exercise.

In addition your doctor may want you to take anticoagulants for awhile.

Q — Is the color of a person's fingernails ever an index to his health? Is there any relation between the hair and the nails?

A — In persons with anemia, pallor is sometimes very noticeable in the nails. And in persons with congestive heart disease, with waterlogging of the tissues, a bluish cast may be seen in the lips and nails.

Although the nails are less flexible than the hair, the two skin appendages have much in common. They have their roots deep in the skin, grow outward continuously and can be cut without pain. Furthermore their chemical composition is similar.

Q — The toenails on both my feet are so thick I can no longer cut them with my scissors. Can anything be done to help me?

A — Thickened nails are usually seen on the feet. They may be caused by poor circulation due to wearing shoes that are too short, by ringworm, by psoriasis or the condition may be hereditary. Although cure is difficult, sometimes treatment of the underlying cause will improve the nails.

Q's and A's On Tax Matters

This column of questions and answers on federal tax matters is provided by the local office of the U. S. Internal Revenue Service and is published as a public service to taxpayers. The column answers questions most frequently asked by taxpayers.

Q — With all the talk about reasonable tax administration how can the Internal Revenue Service justify its refusal to allow parents to deduct the cost of giving their children a college education? With things as they are, a college education has become a necessity.

A — The tax laws, which are enacted by Congress, do not permit parents a deduction for their children's college education. The responsibility of the Internal Revenue Service is to administer existing tax laws in a reasonable manner.

Congress, however, has been considering the possibility of granting a deduction for this purpose.

Q — How do you tell when an expense is deductible as a business expense?

A — The tax law lays down some general guidelines on this subject. To be deductible, the expense must be ordinary and necessary in carrying on a trade or business, or for the production or collection of income, or for the management of property held for the production of income. In addition, the expense must be directly related to the income producing property and the income must be taxable income.

To illustrate this last point, the cost of renting a safe deposit box to hold taxable bonds is a deductible expense. But if the box holds only tax-free bonds the law will not allow you to deduct the expense.

We the Women

Are We Really 'Bored,

By Ruth Millett

In predicting that life in the future may be so mechanized and computerized that most men will languish unhappily in a leisure they don't want or know how to use, a University of California psychologist points to the American housewife as a horrible example of what could happen to the American male.

Surfeited with labor-saving devices, many housewives, he claims, "have found it difficult to occupy their leisure time and have allowed themselves to become bored, neurotic, fat, delinquent and even alcoholic.

Do you believe that? I don't. The woman today who is economically able to have her house "cluttered with labor-saving devices" would in other times have had hired help to do the work machinery now helps her to do herself.

It takes a good deal of her time just to keep those machines working for her, for never have the standards of cleanliness been so high as they are today. Every day is washday in many homes, and what the automatic washer washes, the housewife has to iron and put away.

Never have women spent so much time on child rearing as they do today, as they try to keep their children happy and healthy and fit them for a complicated competitive world.

Never have women put themselves out so much to be real companions to their husbands as they do today or worked so hard to keep up with their men intellectually.

Never have so many housewives been wage earners as today, when many a woman works the same hours her husband does for a pay check and then spends her so-called "leisure" time on homemaking chores.

No doubt there are some housewives who are "bored, neurotic, fat, delinquent and even alcoholic." But they are few in comparison with the hard-working, responsible, companionable, young-looking, streamlined women who use whatever labor-saving devices they have to give them more time to be homemakers in the finest sense of the word.

LEGENDS OF CHRISTMAS — By Kreigh Collins

Housewife Wins Case Of Parking

BOSTON (AP) — Theresa Fancy, a determined housewife, took on a Massachusetts state agency and won. As a result she won't have to pay a $200 parking bill.

Actually, she was awarded $1 token damages for her trouble over the bill, presented to her when her car was located in a state parking garage 73 days after it had been stolen.

She said today that at one point she was ready to throw up her hands and "let the parking authority keep the car if they wanted to and try to forget the whole thing."

When she first went to pick up the car at the Boston Common underground garage, she said, the Massachusetts Parking Authority told her she owed $182.50 — and that the fee was mounting at a rate of $2.50 a day.

She said she had paid only $400 for the car last summer. It was stolen two days later.

"Finally it was found. When I went to get it I knew I'd have to pay a few dollars but when they told me — wow! That was half what I'd paid for it."

The Automobile Legal Association provided free counsel to get the car back. By then the bill had gone up to $200.

Parking authority chairman Samuel Valenti said the matter would be "fought to the end." The final, head-on collision with Mrs. Fancy occurred Tuesday in Municipal Court.

Judge Joseph Riley dismissed the authority's claim, saying there was no evidence that it was Mrs. Fancy who had left the car at the garage.

"I have no hard feelings," Mrs. Fancy said. "Life is too short, and besides this is the Christmas season."

Soviets Take Major Step To Realism

MOSCOW (AP) — The Soviet Union has taken a major step toward economic realism.

Budget and development plans for 1966 adopted by the Supreme Soviet last week indicate an intention to correct an imbalance created in the Stalin era between industry and agriculture.

The announced plans suggest that the U.S.S.R. hopes to be able to concentrate on internal development instead of having to turn its major attention to the danger of a new world war.

Despite a hard-sounding line on Viet Nam and other East-West questions, new budget increases in projected military spending are regarded as only in proportion to the increase in total spending.

An apparent slowdown in the rate of growth of the Soviet economy does not mean it is failing to develop rapidly. It has become so big that it is more difficult to increase the growth rate. The planned rate for 1966 will be 6.7 per cent, a drop from a claimed rate of 8.5 per cent this year and the lowest since the 1946 postwar recovery year.

In 1958, for example, production of five million tons more steel meant a 9 per cent increase. In 1966 it would take more than eight million additional tons to match that growth percentage.

An attack on chronic agricultural problems also is a factor in slowing down the over-all rate of growth. Soviet planners, charting rapid development for agriculture, know to their sorrow that farming in the U.S.S.R. does not lend itself to accurate planning.

Crop failures in 1963 and again this year forced the Soviet Union to buy wheat abroad. Meat and dairy products remain in short supply.

In March, the leadership decided to invest 41 billion rubles in agriculture in the 1966-70 five-year plan. This is as much as was invested in the previous 19 years.

Stalin left agriculture to stagnate — and thus eventually failed to feed an expanding population adequately — because he demanded concentration on heavy industry. His industrialization was relatively simple. The U.S.S.R. would produce "the means of production" such as steel and other heavy industrial goods, and a limited range of goods for the consumer, such as the same kind of blue underwear for all Soviet men, for example.

But it became difficult to control every nut and bolt from a centralized Moscow ministry.

Now an effort at limited decentralization is in progress, involving more local initiative in enterprises and rewards for producing goods which sell, rather than meeting command quotas. It means, simply, the profit system.

More consumer goods are promised, but this will come slowly.

Some new industrial equipment eventually will benefit the consumer. Light industry construction is supposed to rise 22 per cent, while industrial investment over-all is up only 5.2 per cent. This suggests a slow shift toward giving the Soviet people a larger share of what they produce, along with a better diet.

Loses Fight To Restore Heart Beat

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — "We lost the heart beat during the ambulance ride," said a Dallas physician who had opened his son's chest and massaged the youth's heart back to life in a futile medical battle Tuesday.

Louis Smith, 19, a freshman music student at North Texas State University, died at a hospital seven hours after the emergency operation in his home.

Dr. Louis S. Smith, a pathologist, said a sixth sense caused him to check the condition of his son about 1:30 a.m. The youth had come home from school with a cold and bronchitis.

"I walked into his room, checked his pulse and his heart had stopped beating. I tried to massage it externally, but that did not bring him back.

"I cut his chest with a razor and took his heart in [illegible] began to massage it," Smith said.

Another son Richard, 17, gave mouth-to-mouth resuscitation while Mrs. Smith called for an ambulance and firemen.

The massaging and mouth-to-mouth resuscitation continued during the ride to the hospital, Smith said, but "he got worse during the trip.

"We lost the heart beat during the ambulance ride because we could not keep his air way open."

Other doctors relieved Smith at the hospital.

"My hand was about dead then — I had been working his heart for about 40 minutes."

The youth died at 8:20 a.m. of a "cardiac standstill."

Maugham Condition Worsens Again

NICE, France (AP) — Somerset Maugham's doctors reported today that the British author's condition is deteriorating again.

The doctors said the 91-year-old writer's temperature had risen considerably. Dr. George Rosanoff, Maugham's chief physician, said an improvement in his patient's condition noted Tuesday "did not continue," but that Maugham's condition "is not yet catastrophic."

Maugham had a stroke Saturday and has been in a coma since. Rosanoff said Sunday that he was dying.

US Coin Shortage Drive Progresses

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Treasury reports it is making substantial progress in its campaign to ease the nation's coin shortage.

As of last Friday, there were more than one billion coins in Federal Reserve branch banks, compared with about 300 million at the corresponding date last year. Demand for coins annually reaches a peak during the Christmas shopping season.

There is still a shortage of half-dollars, but the Treasury said there have been relatively few complaints because of the increased number of quarters available.

Token Gifts To Postmen Are Approved

WASHINGTON (AP) — It's all right to give your postman a handkerchief, some cookies or such for Christmas in appreciation of those trudges through rain, sleet and snow to your mailbox.

A postal official said today that the department has no position regarding token gifts of appreciation—within reason.

"But we have very, very strict regulations — under no circumstances can the letter carriers solicit anything," he said.

A check around the capital showed the government has "hound's tooth clean" regulations about gifts to any federal employe from anybody having business or seeking business with the government.

The rules pretty well eliminate anything from a business firm except calendars or pencils with the firm's name on them.

The word appears to have gotten around.

"We used to receive quite a few gifts, but after the new regulations came out, it stopped; it just stopped," one Pentagon worker told a reporter.

For the thousands of federal workers under Civil Service, the regulations are similar.

Members of Congress set their own guidelines.

A congressional assistant was asked if she and her staff were under any regulations about accepting Christmas gifts.

"No — because we never get any," she replied. "Oh, sometimes, a box of candy comes to the office staff."

Do they keep it?

"We eat it," she replied in a "what else? manner.

Boonville Takes Victory

Last-Minute Scoring Bids Cost Tigers 63-55 Defeat

It was an evening of last-minute scoring drives, but the resolute Boonville Pirates avenged an earlier loss by defeating the Smith-Cotton Tigers 63-55 at Boonville Tuesday night.

Smith-Cotton battled Boonville point for point in the first quarter only to see the Pirates take a one-point lead with a free throw just as the quarter ended.

It was the same story in the second period, with both teams making a nip-and-tuck battle out of it. Boonville, however, again put on a scoring drive, this time with two minutes remaining in the game, and outscored Smith-Cotton 23-15 that quarter for a half-time lead of 36-27.

Boonville added another two points to that in the third quarter and the best Smith-Cotton effort (in the final period) netted only 18 points, three more than Boonville, but a far cry from the needed points to win.

Larry Bell and Russ Cusick paced Smith - Cotton's attack with 17 points apiece, while Charles Elbert led the Pirates with 23 points on nine field goals and five charity tosses.

In B-team play, Smith-Cotton lost 42-38. Doug Abele and Mark Hoerl paced the Pirates with 11 and ten points respectively while Jerry Morris was high for Smith-Cotton with 20.

A tough weekend schedule awaits the Tigers, who are slated against the capable Warsaw Wildcats on Friday and then round things out against Springfield Glendale on Saturday. Of the two, the Warsaw game will involve a road trip. The Tigers have a 3-2 season.

For the sake of the speculators, Warsaw trounced Collins Tuesday night. The Warsaw—S-C game won't see a player over 6-2 in action, according to Sedalia coach Earl Finley. The speed and accuracy of the two teams will probably determine the outcome of the contest, he feels.

In the Springfield game, which will get underway at the S-C gymnasium at 6:30 p.m., the visiting Falcons will give the Bengals another hard test of skill. The first conference game of the season for Smith-Cotton comes on Dec. 21 against Columbia, at Sedalia.

Score by quarters:

Smith-Cotton	12	15	10	18—55
Boonville	13	23	12	15—63

Greyhounds Win 74-61

Smithton Loses But Again Shows Power

The Sweet Springs Greyhounds, following Bob Brown's one-man onslaught, whipped the Smithton Tigers 74-61 in non-conference basketball action at Sweet Springs Tuesday night. Even at that, the Tigers gave the 'Hounds a game to remember.

Brown hit the bucket for eight field goals and nine free throws to pace the Sweet Springs scoring attack. To pad that effort, he took 23 rebouunds off the boards. Warren Sims came through with 18 points for the Greyhounds and assisted in ten other successful scoring tries.

Sweet Springs managed a mere two-point lead against the up-and-coming Smithton ball club. The Tigers battled the 'Hounds to a 13-all tie in the second quarter's performance and then went on in the third quarter to shave a point off Sweet Springs' lead.

Then, again for some unexplainable reason, the Smithton attack fell apart, just as it did in the Tigers' game against Warsaw. Sweet Springs put in some reserve strength and outscored Smithton 25-13 in the last quarter.

It was the second time that the Smithton Tigers have gone against what was considered a stronger team and put up a whale of a battle for victory. Each time they missed it, but by mere points. It may mean that the Tigers may become a real contender in the PBCAA conference this season. Their conference standing wasn't affected by Tuesday's outcome.

Mike Turner powered the Sweet Springs drive with ten from the field and five from the charity line for 25 points.

B-team action saw Smithton oust Sweet Springs 46-33 with Hampy doing the honors with 18 points. Tops for Sweet Springs was Randy Fisher with 18.

The Greyhounds will see action again this Friday, traveling to Concordia. Smithton, however, won't see action again until Jan. 4.

The game left Sweet Springs with a 7-4 mark and Smithton with a 3-9 record for the season.

Score by quarters:

Sweet Springs	16	13	20	25—74
Smithton	14	13	21	13—61

Individual scoring: Sweet Springs — Warren Sims, 8-2-18; Bob Brown, 8-9-25; Greg Fisher, 5-2-12; Rick Rennison, 3-2-8; Russ Scott, 3-3-9; Rich Howard, 1-0-2. Smithton — Gary Ackerman, 2-0-4; Dave Grupe, 4-0-8; Don Payne, 1-0-2; Mickey Selken, 1-0-2; Rodney Thomas, 5-7-17; Mike Turner, 10-5-25; Allen Zimmerschied, 1-1-3.

Referee Ousted In Slug-Fest

Richard Moody, wrestling referee from St. Joseph, who most usually comes out on the losing end even in wrestling matches continued his record by getting clipped on the ear and knocked out by Bob Brown, Tuesday night. It came 45 seconds in the sixth round and rather proved the point on Moody's challenge of Brown, who had roughed Moody up in a wrestling event a week ago.

Moody who "has" boxed, and has some Golden Glove experience, found the brute strength of Brown was just a little too much for him. He "chilled" Brown a couple of times, and Brown shook it off, and came back to slug with Moody.

Point-wise up to the sixth round Moody had the edge, but the haymaker on Moody's left ear, which incidentally caused it to puff up, was too much and down went Moody for the ten count.

The agile Bobby Shane, displayed some neat activity in the ring in the six-man wrestling royal as he outsmarted Chris Belkas and Bob Brown to win after 13 minutes and 15 seconds had rolled by.

The Viking was the first to disappear from the ring as he gave a dashing rush to a corner to smash Shane, instead Shane stepped aside and the Viking went sailing over the top rope to be the first out. This was after seven minutes and 20 seconds had elapsed. Victor Rivera missed a bounce off the rope and went sailing four inches over the top rope to the outside and was the second to be eliminated after 11 minutes and 10 seconds. Hagen was slugged down, and hit the ropes and Belkas and Brown heaved-ho and over the rope went Hagen in 11 minutes and 25 seconds, leaving Shane to do battle with Belkas and Brown. As the two squeezed in on Shane, Belkas made a swing, got off balance against the ropes and Shane quickly grabbed his legs and sent him rolling out in 13 minutes and 15 seconds. Brown, anxious to take Shane, made a mad rush at him and Shane side-stepped and gave him a boost and over the ropes went Brown in 13 minutes and 15 seconds on the event.

Chris Belkas fell victim of Bobby Shane in their one-fall, 15-minute time limit event after 13 minutes had rolled by. Shane succeeded in getting his famed arm-lock and barrel roll and pinned Belkas.

The semi-final event between Thor Hagen and The Viking, a one-fall, 15-minute time limit contest, ended after 13 minutes and 10 seconds with Hagen being declared the winner when The Viking continued to violate the referee's warning regarding his method of chopping Hagens's throat with the side of his hand. The Viking was disqualified and Hagen awarded the match.

Promoter Gust Karras announced wrestling will take a rest until after Christmas, but plans an all-star studded card for Tuesday night, December 28.

Bluejays Lose Game To St. Paul

The Corder Bluejays, in spite of a scoring drive in the last half, lost their seventh game of the season to St. Paul of Concordia in non-conference action Tuesday night.

St. Paul battled Corder to a tie in the first quarter but then came through with 13 points in the second quarter for a five-point lead at the half. Adding three more in the third, St. Paul's put the game on ice.

Corder suffered a setback when Roy Manning, who scored 15 points in the game, was knocked out of action with a possible rib fracture. Manning went after a basketball which was headed out of bounds and, in his effort, ended up on the bleachers. The injury may keep him out of action for some time.

Manning did manage to lead Corder's attack before the injury however, hitting on six field goals and three free throws. Top man for St. Paul was Smith with 18 points.

In the B-game, Corder ousted St. Paul 51-39 on Glen Aversman's 14 points. High for the losers was Gienapp, also with 14.

In its next outing the Corder club will host the tough Northwest Mustangs, who were idle Tuesday night. Corder takes a 4-7 record into the contest.

Mustangs Hand Calif. New Defeat

The Eldon Mustangs handed the sliding California Pintos their sixth defeat of the season Tuesday night, 58-51, in a non-league battle at California, despite the fact that the Pintos Earl Englebrecht scored 22 points.

Both clubs fought each other point for point in the first quarter to end it in a 12-all deadlock. But then Eldon unleashed its full attack and set California back 11 points before the first half ended.

California rallied in the third quarter, but gained back only six points that period, and then lost two of them in the final quarter.

Englebrecht hit for ten field goals and two charity tosses for his total. Top gun for Eldon was Randy Vernon with nine goals and eight from the field for a 26 point total, good for game scoring honors.

California didn't let the evening go as a complete loss, however, ousting Eldon 43-32 in the B-game. Top man for California in that contest was Allen Meyer with 11, while John Beard paced the leaders with nine.

The Pintos will next play the Osage Indians, at Osage, this Friday.

Needed For Next Season

Little League Seeks Uniforms

By Pete Daniels

It's not a skeleton in the closet that Little League officials in Sedalia are looking for, but junior-size baseball uniforms.

That was the word from Kenny Schilb, who's been named to handle public relations for the league in preparation for next season.

The 1966 Little League season is still a long way from here, but getting the season off and making a success of it are problems confronting officials of the league today. Schilb notified the Sedalia Democrat-Capital Tuesday and explained the situation.

As everyone knows, Little Leaguers tend to grow up and become young men. They go to high school and college. Somewhere along the line, their Little League uniforms are put aside—permanently.

Schilb estimates there may be about 100 of these discarded uniforms lurking in as many closets in Sedalia. The total could be greater, considering the number of youngsters involved in Little League play each year.

The league, Schilb says, is in desperate need of these uniforms. Since Little League is, in essence, a non-profit organization, expenses often outgrow income. The latter depends largely on donations—and donations more often than not are skimpy.

There is no way to estimate just how many uniforms have been lost to Little League because youngsters simply outgrew them. Unless there are other sons in the family planning to enter Little League, Schilb said Tuesday officials of the league are issuing the following appeal:

Parents of former Little Leaguers are asked to look for old uniforms. If found, they are further asked to give Little League a boost by turning the uniforms in. Bob Johnson, of Russell Brothers Clothing Co., 214 South Ohio, will accept them for storage.

Every uniform turned in will mean that much less expense for the league next season. The uniforms are urgently needed in order that youngsters can get full benefit from the league's program next year.

With the Christmas season at hand, the time is apropos for the donation of old uniforms. Parents can justly consider their donation as a Christmas gift for the youngsters of Little League.

The stresses put on the Little League's budget are many — and the gift of each uniform will help ease the strain by that much.

Wildcats Trounce Collins Team

The Warsaw Wildcats, after their narrow squeak of a victory over Smithton last week, set out to prove themselves Tuesday night and the Collins Wildcats suffered because of it. Warsaw, playing host, wasn't friendly and ousted Collins 95-48 in a non-conference encounter.

The Wildcats (from Warsaw) never gave the Wildcats (from Collins) a chance in the game. Warsaw held a 27-14 margin at the end of the first quarter and kept up the pace throughout the game.

Warsaw's lowest score for any one quarter was 18 in the third, but that was six points better than what Collins produced the same period.

Warsaw had ten men on the scoreboard Tuesday night, with Bob Barnes leading the pack on 11 field goals and three charity tosses for 25 points, followed by Bob Barb's 16 tallies. High for the losers was Lonnie Terry with 22 points on five from the field and 12 from the charity line.

B-team activity only set the stage for the varsity contest when Warsaw trounced Collins 52-31 on John Heizman's 13 points. High for Collins was Smith with 12.

The Wildcats (from Warsaw) will next play the Smith-Cotton Tigers in a non-conference battle this Friday at Warsaw. It will be the sixth game for the Bengals—giving Warsaw a slight edge in the experience department.

The contest, in spite of Warsaw's added experience, may be a tough one if the performance Warsaw turned in against Smithton is repeated. All indications, however, point in another direction and the Sedalians may have a real battle on their hands. Warsaw will take a 12-1 record into the game.

Score by quarters:

Warsaw	27	25	18	25—95
Collins	14	14	12	8—48

Individual scoring: Warsaw—Tom Shepardson, 6-1-13; Bob Barnes, 11-3-25; Don Cothern, 1-4-6; Bob Barb, 7-2-16; Jack Kellner, 5-1-11; James Miller, 4-1-9; Skeeter Turner, 4-0-8; Ronnie Flippen, 1-1-3; Steve Thompson, 1-0-2; Nick Parker, 1-0-2. Chilhowee Wins Over Bulldogs

Chilhowee trounced the Leeton Bulldogs 55-46 in a non-conference basketball encounter at Chilhowee Tuesday night, sending Chilhowee's record to a solid 10-2 standing. Leeton is 5-8 for the season.

The Bulldogs battled Chilhowee to a ten-all tie in the first period of play, but Chilhowee gained a four point edge in the second quarter and added three more to that in the third to virtually cinch the game.

A Leeton scoring drive fell two points shy of Chilhowee's effort in the fourth quarter, leaving the 'Dogs with a nine-point gap as the buzzer sounded.

Dale Marksberry's eight field goals and two charity tosses, good for 18 points, paced the Chilhowee attack, while John White led Leeton with 17.

B-team play saw Chilhowee again dominate Leeton, 37-29, with Cleon Jones carrying the biggest scoring burden with ten points, while Bill O'Neill was high for Leeton with 14, good for game scoring honors.

Chilhowee next sees action against the Green Ridge Tigers at Chilhowee next Tuesday.

Score by quarters:

Chilhowee	10	14	13	18—55
Leeton	10	10	10	16—46

Individual scoring: Chilhowee—Dale Marksberry, 8-2-18; Tom Morgan, 5-2-12; Bob Phillips, 4-2-10; John McKinzie, 4-0-8; Tom Paul, 2-0-4; C. R. Hammons, 1-1-3. Leeton—John White, 8-1-17; Jack Kronhardt, 5-3-13; Dean Garske, 1-4-6; Roger Teter, 2-4-8; Jerry Wheatley, 1-0-2.

Hopscotch Pays Off For A. C. C.

By HAL BOCK
Associated Press Sports Writer

Your drawl doesn't have to be perfect for you to play in the Atlantic Coast Conference.

Geographical hopscotch, a favorite recruiting tactic for many schools in ACC, paid off in a major upset for Frank McGuire at South Carolina last week and now has Vic Bubas' Duke Blue Devils on top of the collegiate basketball heap.

McGuire's imports beat Bubas' refugees a week ago but Duke has spun off three straight victories since, two against defending national champion UCLA, and is ranked No. 1 in The Associated Press poll today.

Furman was the latest victim of the passport policy Tuesday night, bowing to the Blue Devils 102-67 at Durham, N.C.

Duke's Bob Verga, who comes from Sea Girt, N.J. — 360 miles from Durham — pumped 25 points and Jack Marin, who grew up in Farrell, Pa. — about 350 miles from Durham — had 20.

Two more well-traveled Blue Devils, Steve Vacendak and Mike Lewis, pitched in to help Verga and Marin. Vacendak, who's from Scranton, Pa., had 12 points, and Lewis, a sophomore who is Duke's mileage champ — he's from Missoula, Mont., added 11.

Ninth-ranked Bradley, only other team in the Top Ten to play Tuesday night, nearly blew a 14-point lead but hung on to whip Missouri Valley Conference foe St. Louis 68-63.

The Braves led 43-29 at the half but a 10-minute cold spell that produced just five points cut the lead to two points.

Joe Allen and Eddie Jackson hit a pair of quick baskets that pulled Bradley out. Tom Campbell with 24 and Allen with 19 led the Braves, who won their sixth straight. St. Louis is 4-1.

Bill Backensto scored 31 points as Toledo broke a school record with 47 field goals and ripped Northern Illinois 110-88. The Rockets went 47-for-76 from the floor for a brilliant .594 shooting percentage.

Southern Methodist scored the upset of the night, knocking off previously unbeaten Oklahoma City 92-81. SMU had won five straight and beaten the Mustangs 97-90 in an earlier meeting. Carroll Hooser led the winners with 23.

Dub Malaise played only 28 minutes but fired 33 points as Texas Tech downed Oklahoma 100-92. The Red Raiders ran up a 61-point first half that tied a school record for one period. Malaise had 13 for 18 from the floor and 7-for-7 from the foul line.

Cincinnati's Gene Foster sank three free throws in the last 31 seconds as the Bearcats won their fourth straight, downing Colorado, 67-64. The Buffaloes had rallied with seven straight points to tie the score before Foster's free throws gave Cincinnati the victory.

LBJ Winds Up Session On Pakistan

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson, winding up talks today with Pakistan's President Mohammed Ayub Khan, has offered to send a team of medical teachers and scientists to Pakistan.

Johnson made the offer Tuesday night at a White House dinner honoring Ayub.

The mission of the medical team, Johnson said in offering a toast to the visiting leader, "would be to work with your own medical authorities in instituting a broad improvement in medical training — and in working with your people in improving rural health and public health."

He said the team would be led by Dr. Donald F. Hornig, White House science adviser.

Raising his glass, Johnson proclaimed a need to find peace in the world. He called for efforts to conquer "the curses of poverty, hunger, disease, illiteracy, the human and physical problems."

Ayub, in his toast to Johnson, thanked him for the offer of the medical mission and acknowledged that "our relations have to a certain extent been sore." He attributed this to "misunderstanding" and said friendship between the United States and Pakistan "can be — must be maintained."

After the dinner, Johnson and Ayub had a 35-minute conference in the family quarters of the White House. They were joined by Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey.

Earlier Tuesday, the two presidents had what Ayub described as a very frank but friendly private talk about the Kashmir dispute and Viet Nam.

Ayub, in one of the lightest official schedules on record for a visiting chief of state, scheduled no official meetings until a 5 p.m. conference with Johnson at the White House.

The Pakistan leader turned down an invitation to address the National Press Club and planned no news conferences or interviews. An aide said that this was to avoid any embarrassment over policy differences with the United States.

White House aides said both Johnson and Ayub were relaxed and informal in their private talks. Sources said Johnson wanted to reassure Ayub that he has an open line to the White House and has a friendly ear there, whenever he wishes to get in touch.

AFL-CIO Resolution On Viet Nam

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — AFL - CIO leaders said today that North Viet Nam is waging war as part of a Communist drive to destroy the United States and dominate the world.

The resolution — expected to stir mild opposition — pledges to support President Johnson on all measures he deems necessary to halt the Communists and win a lasting peace.

The resolution, drawn up in a closed caucus Tuesday, was presented for approval today by the nearly 1,600 delegates at AFL-CIO's 10th anniversary convention.

Backed by AFL-CIO President George Meany, it drew some reservations from Auto Workers President Walter Reuther — second most powerful man in the 13-million-member federation. Reuther reportedly wanted greater emphasis on efforts toward peace negotiations in Viet Nam.

The resolution mentions U.S. efforts to bring about peace negotiations but places far greater emphasis on the Communist threat to world peace.

"This war is not an isolated or local conflict," the proposed resolution says.

"It is an integral phase of the Communist drive for dominating the world."

Robinson New Star In Republican Party

WINCHESTER, Va. (AP) — J. Kenneth Robinson emerged as a new star in the Virginia Republican firmament today in the wake of his runaway victory over a Democrat for the state Senate seat relinquished by U.S. Sen. Harry F. Byrd Jr.

His better than 2-to-1 decision over Democrat Joseph A. Massie Jr. in Tuesday's special election in the Shenandoah Valley 21st District was a prestigious prize in a seat of Democratic party power.

It projected Robinson, 48, an orchardist-businessman, to the forefront of Republican future books for Congress or perhaps candidate for governor four years hence.
